REPORT
BUILDING

SPENT IN
LAST YEAR IN BUILD-INGS—EIGHTY NEW ERECTED.

W. E. French, who is inspector, called the attention of a Daily News representative that although his report at the last meeting of the committee was given but little consideration at the time, it contained valuable information regarding the operations in the city.
He stated that there were several items filed in the city and the number of new buildings or in process of construction was stated as 80. The total of additions was 100 and of alterations as 10.
The cost of new buildings was $1,425, the cost of the alterations, and of the alterations. The inspector adds that all the improvements in the past year as in several applications were filed and will cover the amount to be paid. This includes only improvements within the city limits. Much building was done in the Daytona Beach area and some also in the vicinity of Daytona.

14 PERISH ON RIVER STEAMER WHEN IT CRASHES INTO PIER

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Jan. 6. — The river steamer, Kanawha, which struck the pier at dam 19, 10 miles below here, late last night, sank a few minutes later, carrying down with her 14 passengers and crew. Rescue boats managed to take off 46 persons from the foundering vessel, and parties are still searching the banks of the stream in the hope that some of the missing reached shore. It is reported that a heavy gale of wind extinguished the pier lights and the pilot, receiving no warning of the nearness of the structure, crashed the Kanawha into the piles at almost full speed.

REVENUE SCHEME OF PRESIDENT DOOMED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The Democratic leaders, after a poll of the house, have decided to notify the president that his proposals for increasing the revenues are doomed to failure. The methods of increasing the income tax is the only feature of Wilson's plan that meets with favor. The tax on automobiles, on bank checks and on gasoline, are sure to be defeated if brought to a vote.
The opposition to taxes being placed on iron and steel is also vigorous but may be overcome.

GERMANY WILL HURL 400,000 MEN AGAINST ALLIES AT KILINDIR

LONDON, Jan. 6.—A dispatch from Amsterdam this morning states that von Mackensen's army has been ordered to begin a general forward movement at East Saloniki immediately. It is reported that the Teutons have massed 400,000 men along the Serbo-Grecian frontier.

The first battle will probably take place at Kilindir, which has been strongly fortified. The Allies, however, are expected to make their main stand just north of Saloniki, where they can be aided by the heavy guns of the fleet. A report states that their resisting force amounts to 300,000 men.

REV. SALISBURY ON PERSIA

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Ambassador Page, in London, today confirmed the report that the Rev. Homer Salisbury, of the District of Columbia, was aboard the ill-fated Persia. No trace of him has reached officials here and it is thought that he perished with the vessel. The missionary was on his way to join his wife in India.

Ambassador Penfield as been requested to procure information from the Vienna government concerning the nationality of the submarine that sank the Persia.

TO PUSH CANDIDACY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The friends of Federal Judge Clayton, of Montgomery, are planning to push his candidacy for the late Justice Lamar's place.

ELECTION MANAGERS OFFICIALLY DECLARE CHAPTER DEFEATED

COUNCIL UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTS MOTION TO ACCEPT AND FILE REPORT OF INSPECTORS AND CLERK.

Responding to a call for a special meeting of the Daytona city council, for the purpose of hearing the official report of the result of Tuesday's election, President Henry Schmidt and Councilmen Mills, Gough, Stevens, Burdick and Klock assembled in the aldermanic hall room in the city hall at about 7:30 Wednesday evening.

Immediately after President
Schmidt had called the body to order, the following report, read for word, was submitted by the election inspectors and clerk:

"State of Florida,
County of Volusia,
City of Daytona.

"We, the undersigned, inspectors and clerk of the special municipal election, held on the 4th day of January, A. D. 1934, do hereby certify that at the said election there were six hundred and sixty-two (662) qualified electors, as shown by the poll lists and exemption certificates submitted to election day.

"That at the said election there were cast three hundred and thirty-three (333) votes by the qualified electors on the proposition, for the modification or rejection of chapter No.
1141 of the laws of the state of Florida, entitled, 'An act to amend the present municipal government of the city of Daytona and establish a new form of city government for the same, and to prescribe its jurisdiction, duties and powers.'

"Of the votes cast thirty (30) were illegal, and of the remaining five hundred and two (532) legal votes cast two hundred and fifty-three (253) were cast for the modification of said chapter No. 1141 of the laws of the state of Florida, and two hundred and seventy-nine (279) votes were cast for the rejection of said chapter No. 1141 of the laws of the state of Florida.

"We therefore declare and report to the city council of the city of Daytona, Florida, that the said chapter
No. 1141 of the laws of the state of Florida was defeated by a majority of (379) votes.

"E. W. GREENE,
Inspector.
"E. L. BOND,
Inspector.
"J. L. LYNCH,
Inspector.
"F. S. RODGERS, Clerk."

After the city clerk had concluded
the reading of the report, Councilman Stevens moved that it be received and placed on file. Councilman Klock seconded the motion, which was unanimously adopted.

Attorney Warner, of Orlando, was present, and after the matter had been disposed of, retired to City A-

SELECT GOOD MEN, REGARDLESS OF THEIR PAST FRACTIONAL AFFILIATIONS

The News is in favor of going right ahead now, choosing, at the election to be held on the ninth day of February next, five good men charged with the duty of drafting a commission - manager charter for the city of Daytona. Let us have a charter that is as nearly free of defects as it is possible to make it. Furthermore, let us select, without regard to factional differences or the more or less just grievances of the past, the best men available for the serious work of evolving a new modern organization of municipal government.

We hereby go on record as earnestly counseling the people of Daytona not to permit the evil influence of potential members of the charter commission with this or that faction to have any weight whatever in the matter. More specifically, we advise: DO NOT oppose the election of a capable man simply because his political views in the past have differed from yours. On the other hand, do not make the mistake of supporting an incompetent man merely because he has hitherto been on the same side of the fence with you.

You want and we want Daytona to have the very best system of government it is possible to have. Why not, for once, get together and work harmoniously for the municipality's very best interests without fear, favor or affection?

The average citizen of this beautiful peninsula is not nearly so stupid as you think. This is by no means general commendation, but the average man might be thinking only that they choose other elections.

The fact that the Japanese government is to spend $50,000,000 for the construction of canals, this fact will not change the value of rational propositions advanced in the United States.

The Barge canal here is not increasing in capacity as it should. No more appropriate time of subject can be made in the construction than a presentation of this fact for the purpose of having other and other states learn by our actions which is to be generally holding for the people of Daytona and the whole nation. Popular subscriptions of even $100 each will result the fact.

No city of its size in America has better water accommodations than Daytona. It is more than for the welfare of any city to be able to have water of course in a manner that pleases them.

The average salary of Ohio Methodist preachers is over twelve hundred dollars a year. This is by no means princely remuneration, but the same men might be receiving less, had they chosen other vocations.

The fact that the Japanese government is to spend $50,000,000 for the construction of warships, this year, will not dampen the ardor of national-preparedness advocates in the United States.

The Burgoyne casino fund is not increasing as rapidly as it should. ## "MR. CREX OF MONTE CARLO" AT CRYSTAL

Jesse L. Lasky will present Theodore Roberts in an elaborate picturization of "Mr. Crex of Monte Carlo," by E. Phillips Oppenheim, at the Crystal theater this afternoon and evening.

Mr. Crex is admirably played by Theodore Roberts, and Dorothy Davenport enters into her part with a thorough understanding of its "high lights." The story hinges on a supposed chance meeting at Monte Carlo of two diplomats representing world powers. It is their intention to arrange an international pact which will materially change the map of Europe.

Many dramatic situations follow close upon each other until the audience gasps for breath. The action of the piece takes place both on land and on sea and the scenic effects show minute attention.

VOLUSIA COUNTY FAIR AS BUSINESS PROPOSITION

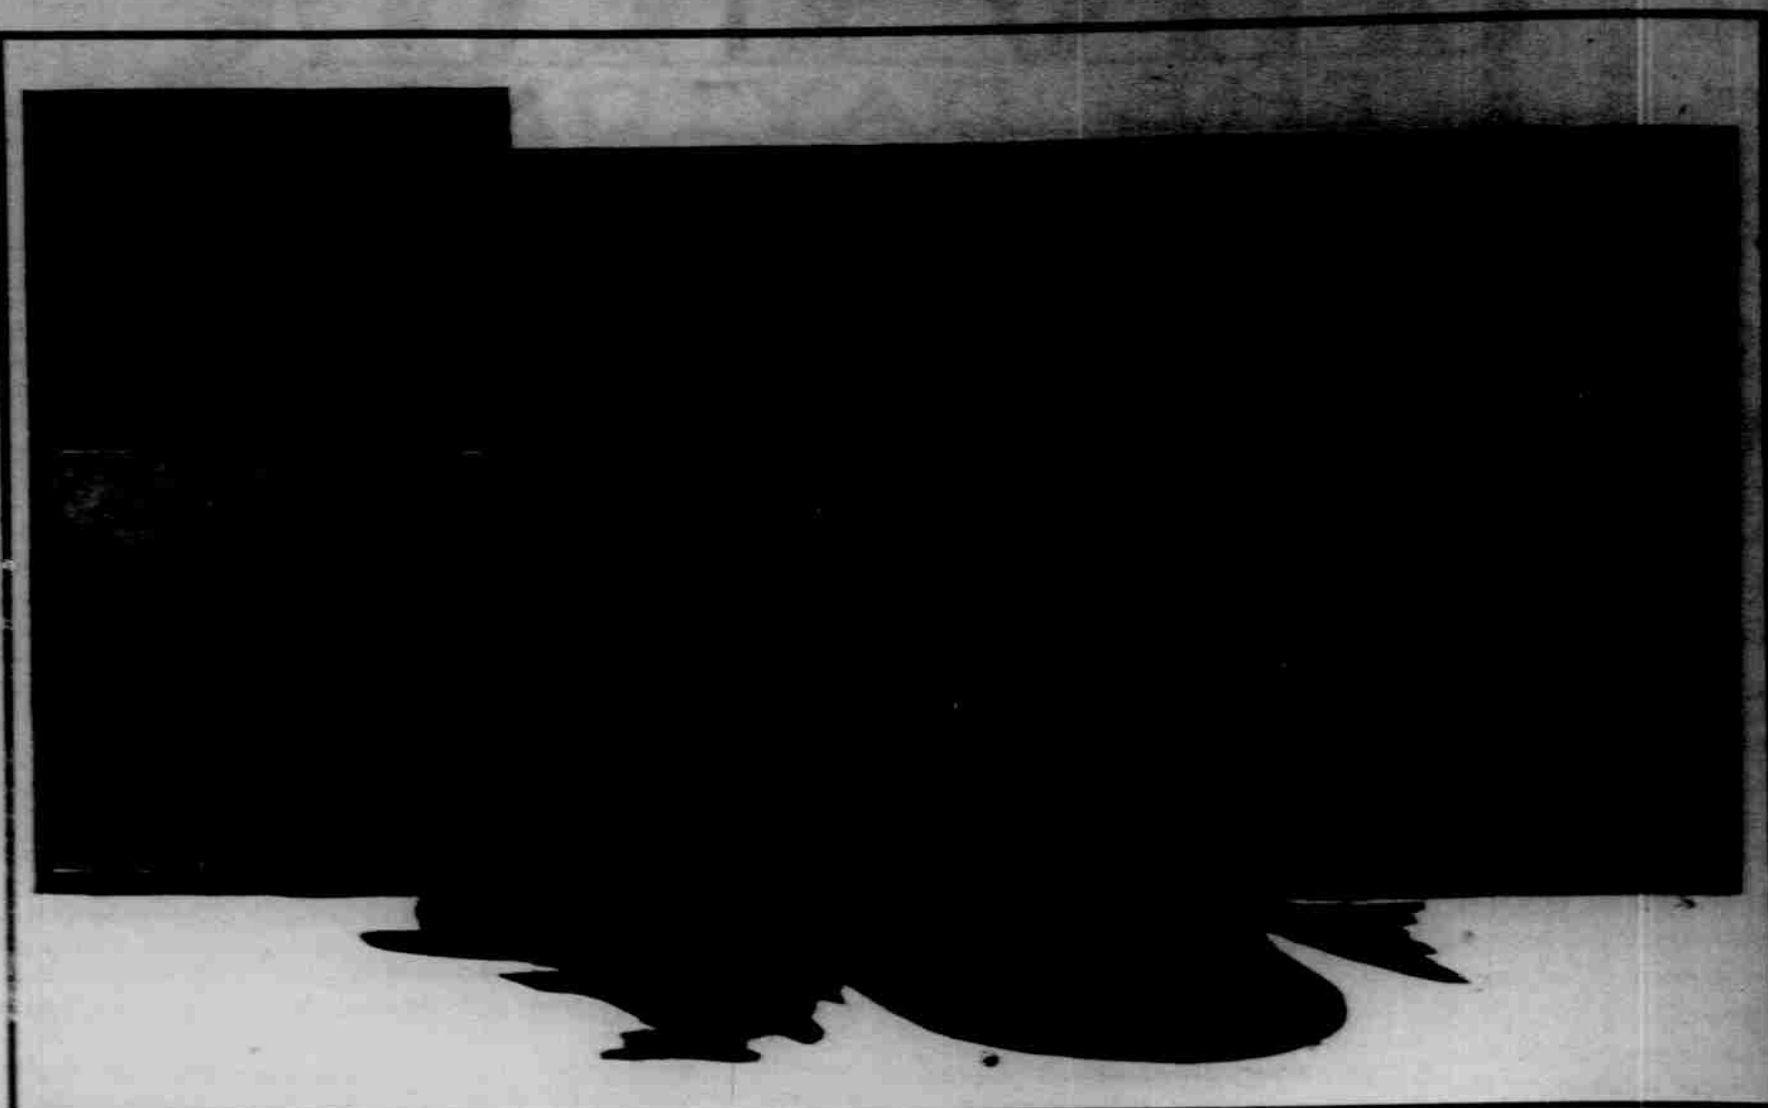

From a business standpoint, if for nothing else, the public spirited citizens throughout the county should do all in their power to make Volusia county's first fair a grand success. The farmers especially should grasp the opportunity it offers as a free advertising medium, and to publicly and uniquely place the products they produce before the people. It will put money into the farmers' pockets faster and more certain than he thinks. Inquiries are being received by the fair officials from different purchasing agents throughout the state and great interest is being manifested in the best displays of hogs, cattle, poultry, corn and all farm products. Prizes will also be awarded for works of skill such as basketry, palmetto work, wearing apparel and the like. Every article will be entered by number and the judges will award without fear or favor.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED NEW YEAR'S

An interesting children's party that escaped earlier mention was held New Year's day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Armstrong on Arlington avenue, Bungalow Park, when their daughter, little Miss Madeline Armstrong, entertained 12 of her small girl friends from 2:30 to 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon. Games and dainty refreshments were enjoyed by the children and the little hostess was the recipient of many pretty gifts, the day being her tenth birthday anniversary. The children present included the little Misses Jean Frances Conrad, Beatrice Balch, Kathryn Putnam, Mary Kent Robbins, Amy Walcott, Elsie Morris, Louise Lapp, Rosalie Sholtz, Catherine Hitt, Mary Gille, Maxine and Dorothy Hankins.

The "Stocking Bank."

The banking of small change in stockings is strictly original with women. Men's socks extend only a trifle above the ankle and usually have holes in the heels, which make them rather unsafe depositories, while a lady's stocking has its entrance at the knee cap, hence it would be a difficult matter to draw upon her bank unless the draft were duly certified by the lady herself.—"Zim" in Cartoons Magazine.

GOOD COMEDY AT ARCADE TODAY

The program for Thursday at the Arcade theater is a very interesting and amusing one. The feature picture is a comedy, entitled "The Postmaster of Pineapple Plains," and is styled "A rural romance in humorous vein."

The cast includes Frank E. McNish, Janet Henry and Charlie Emerson, well-known comedy players in the "Falstaff" productions.

The plot:

Zeke, the postmaster, is in love with Nell, the village belle. She, however, cannot endure the old gossip. So she writes a postal instructing Mark Mitchell, her city suitor, to be under her window at midnight. As the lovers anticipated, Zeke's greed proves too much for him. He schemes to impersonate the lover and get the treasure. Meanwhile, Nell's uncle has received a "Black Hand" letter ordering him to lower $10,000 from his window that evening when he shall hear "two long whistles." Uncle takes Nell into his confidence. When Zeke signals below, uncle lowers a heavy chest and dumps a bucketful of water upon his head. Zeke makes a hasty getaway. When, at a safe distance, he opens the chest he discovers a young, frisky and very hungry bull-dog, who proceeds to make a lasting impression on the postmaster. Not long after, the city chap marries the girl. A postal, written by Nell on her honeymoon, comes into the office. Zeke is shocked and surprised to read thereon: "Dear uncle, we saw our congressman today and he has promised to make you postmaster. He says Zeke is a public nuisance, as he reads everybody's mail."

The full program will be found on the back page of the Daily News.

Early Pollah.

At least one little girl in New York is in line for a diplomatic position when the government decides to admit feminine aspirants to the corps. She was sitting on a park bench the other afternoon, in company with another child about her own age. There was evidently some disagreement between them, and suddenly the discreet maiden turned to her obnoxious companion, smiled sweetly, and said: "Well, if one of us should get off this seat, I'd have more room."

BRETTON INN

For the early season, Bretton Inn is having a remarkably good business and, as usual, the guests are generally arranging to stay for the season.

Mrs. Graves, of Wallkill, N. Y., is making a brief stay at the Inn, while the Borden cottage in the village is being made ready for the family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Prettyman, of Philadelphia, arrived on January 3 and are now in their attractive cottage on the beach. Mr. Prettyman is among the large property owners in Atlantic City, and is extending his interests in Ormond Beach.

D. M. Alexander, of Canton, Ohio, who has many friends in Daytona, is a guest at Bretton Inn.

Mrs. Joseph Cunningham and Augustine Cunningham, of Rochester, are here for the month of January.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stevens and Miss Stevens, of Englewood, N. J., have a suite in the Annex and expect to remain for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Rathbone, of Englewood, N. J., are recent arrivals. Mrs. Rathbone and her children expect to remain until April.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Healy, of St. Louis, were among Tuesday's arrivals.

The movement of motor parties through the southern part of the state is much increased this year, and several families have recently been at the Inn for luncheon or overnight. They speak highly of the improved condition of the roads this season.

J. B. MOORE LEAVES FOR "CASTLE WINDY"

J. B. Moore and a large party left this morning on Mr. Moore's power boat, Grant Ferris, for their camp opposite Oak Hill. "Castle Windy" was built some years ago by its present owner. The party will probably enjoy the excellent duck shooting and fishing. It is the first time this year that Mr. Moore has actually opened his camp.

World's Important Rivers.

The chief western streams are the Columbia, Tagus, Garonne, Loire and Neva. The rivers running south are the Mississippi, La Plata, Rhone, Nile, Ganges and Indus, are more important, as well as those which proceed to the north, as the Rhine, Vistula, Danube, Irish, Lena and Tennessee.

The "SILENT SMITH"

—Model 8 shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

Ball Bearings Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8. Among them are:

Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.

Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating. There is no extra charge for this convenience.

Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.

Faster Ribbon Feed—Insures new place of impact for each typeface.

Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained—ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is a synonym for superior service.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE AT LAKE
HELEN—OTHER BUSINESS.

The board of public instruction for Volusia county, Florida, met in the County superintendent's office on January 3rd, with all members present.

Chairman Crouch reported that he had instructed D. D. and C. M. Rogers to make a survey of the Seabreeze school lot to be furnished Mark & Shattall, architects. The secretary and board's attorney were instructed to take up and pay for deeds to this property when presented by W. H. Courtney.

The secretary was authorized to call a special meeting of the school board for the purpose of advertising for bids for the New Smyrna school building, as quickly as the board's attorney is satisfied with the titles to P. N. Bryan.

It was ordered that $76,000.00 six per cent school bonds of District No. 6, be advertised, in the Gazette-News, for sale on February 7th.

It was ordered that bids be called for the erection of school building at Lake Helen, the date for the opening of bids to be determined by the secretary.

A letter from F. A. Griswold, relative to the purchase of a certain building on the Seabreeze school property was referred to Chairman Geo. F. Crouch with instructions not to accept less than $500.00 for the building.

A request of E. H. Dunham, of Coronado, that the people of that place be allowed the use of the vacant school building there for a library and reading room, was provisionally granted.

The Treasurer's books and reports were examined and approved, old vouchers cancelled, new bills audited, and warrants drawn to cover the same.

The following financial statement was submitted and approved:

CONGREGATIONAL BIBLE CLASS PLANS WINTER'S WORK

The Bible class of the Congregational church held its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. R. M. Knox, on Myrtle avenue. There were discussed plans for the winter's work, which include social affairs at the church, and will later be announced. Stephen Finley is president of the class, and Dr. J. P. Esch, teacher.

Notorious and Notable.

You can become notorious by a single act of conspicuous folly. You can become notable only by continued achievement of exceptional usefulness.

Tremendous Force of Sirocco.

In the Arabian desert the sirocco, or sandstorm, often digs pits 200 feet deep, scattering the sand for miles around.

Poor Middle Child!

Middle children are to be pitied for being condemned to be constantly made over out of the luckier eldest's outgrown raiment. How can Tommy be sure he is Tommy, when he is always walking around in Johnny's shoes? Or Polly, grown to girlhood, ever find her own heart, when all her life it has beaten under Anna's pinafore?—Atlantic.

Remember Only Today.

Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely and with too high a spirit to be cumbered with your old nonsense. This day is all that is good and fair. It is too dear with its hopes and aspirations to waste a moment upon the yesterday.—Emerson.

Newspaper Holders.

A simple newspaper holder can be made by cutting away a portion of one side of an ordinary clothespin, drilling a hole through the thick end for a screw or nail, and fastening it in place where desired. Another way is to split off one side of a clothespin and cut the bottom of the remaining part, tapering as shown; then drill a hole to avoid splitting the piece and fasten in a convenient place.

FARMERS SELL ON A BUSINESS BASIS

Advantages of Co-operation Pointed Out by Government.

BIG AID TO PRODUCERS.

Volume of Business Handled in 1915
by Co-operative Marketing Associations Was $1,400,000,000—Great Progress Has Been Made, but There is Room For Further Improvements.

The advantages of co-operation in the sale of farm products are emphasized in the annual report of the office of markets and rural organization of the department of agriculture, just published.

"The conclusion seems warranted," says the report, "that in communities where co-operation is practically applied to the farmers' business the results obtained are far more satisfactory than those secured by individual methods."

It is estimated that farmers' co-operative marketing and purchasing organizations transacted in 1915 a total business amounting to more than $1,400,000,000. Agricultural co-operation in the United States is therefore far more prevalent than is generally believed, but it is not yet on a sufficiently strong business basis.

For this reason the office of markets has studied the various methods employed by these associations and has worked to devise means by which these methods can be perfected. The studies also have included the prevailing methods of marketing perishable products, cotton, grain, cotton seed, live stock and animal products.

Seeking Direct Outlets.

Studies have been also made of city markets in order to secure information which may open up outlets for farm products. In this connection the report calls attention to the experimental work in distributing timely market information concerning perishable products.

An effort has been made to keep producers informed of arrivals and conditions in the large markets and on the other hand to keep dealers informed of shipments from the important production sections. Strawberries, peaches, tomatoes and cantaloupes were the crops covered in this way during the past season. Glutted markets have been prevented to some extent, total shipments have been greater, and large bodies of growers have received accurate information concerning conditions in competing producing areas and distant markets.

The work of encouraging the proper preparation of products for market has been continued. Investigation into problems of transportation and storage has been continued to determine the cause of the great loss of foodstuffs between producer and consumer.

Experimental shipments by parcel post and express were made during the year with many kinds of fruits and berries, lettuce, milk, butter, eggs, sirup and vegetables. In nearly every case it was found that the success of the shipment depended on the judgment used in selecting the quality of the product and the type of container.

BRITISH HERO A GERMAN.

Wife Learns After His Death in Battle That He Was an Alien.

A remarkable story of how a German named Leibold enlisted under the name of Baker, served for nineteen years in the British army, rose to the rank of squadron sergeant major in the Eleventh hussars and died the death of a hero in France while fighting against the country of his birth is hidden behind the granting of a certificate of naturalization to his widow, Mrs. John Mowat Breadalbane Baker of Godalming, Surrey.

What is more remarkable is that the disclosure of Baker's German nationality surprised no one more than it did his wife.

It was not until eight months after his death that Mrs. Baker, who had been married to him since 1908, learned for the first time that her husband was a German and that she, because of her marriage, was also a German and an "alien enemy" of England.

This discovery caused the registration of Mrs. Baker under the alien restriction order, and for a time she lost her pension. Her nationality and pension, with the arrears, have been restored to her.

Last month Mrs. Baker read in a paper that a Mrs. Leibold, a German, had been prosecuted for failing to register. In the report of the case it was stated that Mrs. Leibold had come to England from Germany after her husband's death and that she had a son, a squadron sergeant major, who had served in the Eleventh hussars and had been killed in action.

SEVEN STATES GO DRY.

Before 1916 Passes Nineteen States Will Have Anti-liquor Laws.

Seven western and southern states have bought liquor at high speed recently. They were preparing for the extension of prohibition to Colorado, Iowa, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Arkansas and South Carolina on Jan. 1.

With Virginia, where prohibition is to become effective on Nov. 1, 1916, nineteen states will be in the dry column.

TO MAKE VESSELS INVISIBLE AIM OF NAVY DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The navy department has fallen back upon first principles in an endeavor to promote the efficiency of the battle fleets by rendering them invisible to enemies. This consists in nothing more than painting the ships of the fleet in such a manner that they will with difficulty be distinguishable from the broad expanse of the water upon which they float.

The idea was suggested to Abbott H. Thayer, an Englishman, who had made an exhaustive study of the peculiar colorations of birds, especially water-fowl. The markings on the feathers of water-fowl were found so closely to resemble the wave colorings as to make these birds practically invisible at certain distances. Everyone has noted how strikingly the partridge resembles in coloring the partridge autumnal aspect of the landscape when the open season sends the huntsman into the brown woods in search of this elusive bird.

At the request of the navy department, Mr. Thayer made extensive experiments on destroyer craft at Newport. Some of the sea craft were painted in checker-board fashion, with black and white squares marked over their hulls at alternative intervals. The idea is to have the colorings conform with the colorings of the waves as affected by the constant movements of the water's surface. One of the most elusive schemes, however, is to mottle the hulls of vessels with irregular serpentine lines of black paint not unlike those employed in decorating the parlor floors of New England homes in the old days.

These serpentine decorations are placed against a background of battle gray, the curves corresponding to the waves and the mixed effect resembling in a striking manner the mottled surface of the water. These experiments have gone far enough to demonstrate that the idea is a sound one. The destroyers at certain distances have been found to merge themselves into the general coloration of the water so as to become as invisible as a sea-fowl nestling close to the waves.

So well pleased are the naval officers with the results of Mr. Thayer's work in redecorating the destroyers that experiments now are to be undertaken with battleships. This may revolutionize the present practice of painting these huge engines of war the familiar "battle gray" now associated with the first line of the naval defense.

It was only a few years ago that the battle fleet of the United States sailed the seas immaculately dressed in pure white, the most striking color known on the water. This, however, has been discarded in favor of gray and now gray seems likely to give way before the mottled effect of the sea-fowl. Similarly severe criticism is directed against the white uniform prescribed for naval and marine officers and enlisted men on tropical service. The same arguments directed against this color for the warships is employed by critics who assert that garbing a fighting man in white distinguishes him from all else as the target for enemy bullets. Recommendations for a change from this type of uniform already are before the navy department, but no one has had the temerity to suggest uniforms based upon the ideas set forth in the costumes of the characters portrayed in Rostand's "Chanticleer."

ELECTION MANAGERS OFFICIALLY DECLARE CHARTER DEFEATED

torney Oates whether he approved of the action taken. To the query Mr. Oates replied in the affirmative.

No other business offering, the council adjourned, after having been in session less than half an hour.

Upwards of a hundred citizens were present to hear the election managers' report and see what disposition would be made of it by the council.

The election to be held on the 9th of February, at which time it is proposed to choose a board charged with the duty of drafting a commission-manager charter, was the subject of considerable comment on the streets and other public places Wednesday evening; and practically all of the discussion heard was favorable to the proposition.

If you read it in the Daily News it is pretty apt to be just that way.

THE WEATHER

THE WEATHER.

People, the weather man has been all about yesterday's. He promises fair weather to-day and Friday for the entire state. There will be a slight rise in temperature in the northern extreme northwestern portions of the state with moderate, variable winds, mostly east in the southern part.

PRINCIPAL MARKS PASSES

Blotting to the pupils of the pupils in the school two pieces, through the civic department, parent-teachers' association and the Palmetto club. At the suggestion of Mr. Marks these little blot-ting machines were procured from the National Christian Temperance Union, Evanston, Ill., and each is a serious item.

Who is responsible for the saloon?

Many Daytona friends of Frank and Mrs. Shears, of Lynn, who formerly lived on Palmetto avenue, but who have not been in Daytona for a few years, will be pleased to learn that they have decided to spend the winter here, renew their former friendships. They have not decided, as yet, whether they will take a house or live at

LOCAL ITEMS

J. D. Hoskins and Mrs. Hoskins, of Eagle River, Mich., have taken up their winter residence in the Stephen Findlay house on Palmetto avenue. They are much pleased with the beauties of Daytona, and hope to establish a winter residence at this ideal spot, where they have spent other seasons and have many friends.

The friends of Richard Stevens, of South Ridgewood avenue, celebrated Mr. Stevens' birthday anniversary Tuesday evening at a dinner party given at the home of James H. Meagley on South Palmetto avenue. After partaking of a very sumptuous repast, the guests enjoyed a very pleasant evening of literature and music. The happy gathering bade "adieu" at a seasonable hour, wishing Mr. Stevens "many happy returns of the day."

Mrs. Henry Roehrs and sons, William and Edward Roehrs, mother and brothers of Mrs. T. C. Henson, of this city, arrived Wednesday evening from Fort Wayne, Ind., and joined Mr. and Mrs. Henson at their home on Fairview avenue. Mrs. Roehrs will be here for only about a month, but Messrs. Roehrs will remain for some time. William Roehrs, who is clerk of the county court at Fort Wayne, has come South for the benefit of his health and may remain here through next summer.

Capt. Luther Willin was a Jacksonville visitor Wednesday on business relating to his franchise for the operation of the ferry between Daytona and Daytona Beach.

Mrs. C. H. Abbott and granddaughter, Miss Evelyn Haynes, have been spending a few days here with Mrs. N. C. Sears at Daytona Beach, having come to this city Wednesday from Orlando, where they had been visiting for about two weeks. Mrs. Abbott is the well-known librarian of the Daytona public library, but is spending the winter on her homestead on Merritt's Island.

SCHOOL NOTES.

To show their appreciation to Mr. Burgoyne the children of the third grade are arranging to send a card of thanks to this very worthy gentleman. This is the first thing of the kind that these children have ever done, and the teachers are using it as a lesson for the pupils. They are working hard to get it "just right." The teachers will also make known their thanks in some written way.

There will be a basket ball game Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock between the Daytona high school, and the academy at Stetson. This will be a very interesting match, and a large number is expected.

The regular meeting of the Parliamentary club of the high school will be held this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in the school.

Principal H. Clay Marks is hoping very strongly that he will be given an opportunity to establish a two-year commercial course in the schools. This can be arranged if the lower graded classes can be permanently placed in the two new school buildings, which are proposed. This would enable Mr. Marks to have a thorough course in bookkeeping, shorthand, etc. A two-year course would fit a pupil to take a position in a business office, and would prepare a student as completely as at a business college.

The next number of the Redpath Lyceum course will be given January 18. This is given for the benefit of the public schools. This will be the third of a series of six, and a large attendance is expected.

Mrs. J. H. Niver, of Bay street, has donated a number of historical and biographical volumes to the school library. Principal Marks in behalf of the school wishes to express appreciation for this useful gift.

Principal Marks, to show his appreciation of Commodore Burgoyne's generous gift of candy to both students and faculty of the schools of Daytona, has written this liberal citizen a letter of thanks.

If you read it in the Daily News it is pretty apt to be just that way.

LOCAL CHAPTER D. A. R. HELD ENJOYABLE MEETING

Abigail Bartholomew Chapter, D. A. R., held a most enjoyable meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Langworthy on North Ridgewood avenue. There was a large attendance of members and guests to greet the state regent, Mrs. M. W. Carruth, of Tampa, who is here on her official visit. Mrs. Carruth is delighted with the beauties of Daytona and its suburbs. She leaves today for New Smyrna, where she will be the guest of Victoria Chapter, D. A. R. The regent made announcement that St. Duff's day will be observed at the home of Mrs. J. D. Maley on Friday, January 7, at 2:00 o'clock in the form of a sewing bee for the Children's Home, at Jacksonville.

The following ladies were elected as delegates from the chapter to the state conference to be held February 9 and 10. Mrs. C. H. Raynor, regent; Mrs. Octavia Thorp, first delegate; Miss DeVoy, second regent. Alternates, Mrs. Ella Chamberlain, Mrs. H. C. Gardiner, Mrs. L. C. Perrin.

The afternoon program was of a patriotic nature. Miss Stoeber read a most interesting paper on "The New Patriotism." A poem, "Liberty," was delightfully recited by Mrs. H. H. Thorp. Mrs. Robert S. Holmes gave a paper on the "History of the Liberty Bell," explaining that the bell has journeyed from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and that it was cast at a cost of $500,000. Mrs. G. A. Brown, of California, rendered two beautiful vocal solos, "A Little Pink Rose" and "A Thrush At Eve."

The program closed with a very charming and able address by the state regent, followed by the usual social hour. Dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE AT KINGSTON M. E. CHURCH

Mrs. Lillian B. Fulton, state organizer for the W. C. T. U., will deliver a temperance lecture at 7:00 o'clock this evening in the M. E. church, South, at Kingston. A cordial invitation is extended the public to be present.

MILLIONS ALREADY SPENT BUILDING DIXIE HIGHWAY

FLORIDA LEADS THE WAY IN ROAD CONSTRUCTION, STATE BEING CREDITED WITH SPENDING TWO MILLION.

"Over $1,765,200 expended in six months on the Dixie Highway alone in fifty counties"—that's the wonderful story of progress gleaned from reports received at highway headquarters to date. And the amount already expended is but a widow's mite as compared to the great sums many of these counties are preparing to spend. Officials of the highway have prepared figures estimating that the fifty counties, selected at random, and representing less than one-third of the total number of counties, are preparing to spend within the next twelve months something like $6,931,000 on the highway. And as the fifty counties are average counties, it is estimated that over $5,300,000 has already been spent on the highway, while over $20,793,000 is to be expended.

Another sign of progress on the great peace route is the large mileage of permanent roads built or under contract. Fifty counties show that nearly one-tenth of the entire mileage is or will be paved road. Entire divisions of the highway are planning paved roads for their entire stretch, notably among these being from Chicago to Danville, Toledo to Cincinnati, Jacksonville to Miami and Tallahassee to Bartow.

When it comes to figures on the highway, Florida stands out as the most progressive state on the route. Where Georgia has expended $151,000, Indiana $126,000, Kentucky $765,000, Illinois $1,250,000, Ohio $1,204,000 and Tennessee $924,000, Florida has more than doubled the amount of the largest expenditure, being credited with $2,505,000. The bond issues which have been voted in the state of Florida alone during the past six months are now in excess of $6,000,000. The majority of the counties issuing the bonds are traversed by the Dixie Highway and the highway will receive a goodly portion of the funds. It is estimated that within the next six months this amount will be doubled so far as Florida is concerned, bond elections for this month alone will be called to vote on over $3,000,000 good roads bonds.

PREACHER THOMPSON BEFORE THE MAYOR

James Thompson, a negro preacher with a record for eloquence, was sentenced in the mayor's court this morning to pay a fine of $10.00 and costs, or go to jail for 15 days, on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Thompson preaches in three different churches, situated in Florida City, in Tomoka and in Cocoa. He claims to be an ardent Missionary Baptist, but when he is not in the pulpit he runs a grocery store on Second avenue in Midway.

Officer I. F. Humphreys arrested him last night and committed him to jail to await trial this morning before the mayor. It is probable he will pay his fine. Thompson was charged with cursing the wife of Gad Taylor, the colored policeman.

There will be a lecture by Wm. Jennings Bryan Friday evening, January 7, at Palmgrove clubhouse. Admission 50 cents.

We have had attempts at foppiness in America, but no real fops. A genuine fop, whether in art, in literature, or in customs, must have brains; ours have been merely effigies, foppiness taking the dull commercial form of a great variety of raiment.

RICHARD H. EDMONDS ON "PREPAREDNESS"

(Written especially for the Daily News by RICHARD H. EDMONDS, Editor Manufacturers Record.)

The most vital question before the people of this country is that of preparedness—preparedness to make sure of peace, not to wage war.

In view of the world situation, unlike anything known in human history, it would be folly to undertake to judge the future entirely by the past.

We have all been living in the last 50 years in the belief that great world wars, in which this country might be involved, were no longer possible. We had thought that civilization and the power of Christianity had lifted the world to a plane where arbitration and not guns could be used to settle international questions.

We are now suddenly confronted with the fact that arbitration and all other peaceful means of settlement of great questions between nations may become merely "scraps of paper" not worth the ink with which they are signed.

We are prone to forget that at least one-half of the world's population is engaged in war. Feeling secure in this country, absorbed in our own petty affairs or personal interests, we are forgetting that we are living in the most momentous period since the day when on Calvary the Son of God gave his life for man's salvation. Nothing else in the last nineteen hundred years is comparable in supreme importance or of world-reaching influence to the things that are taking place before our very eyes.

We do not seem as a country to have grasped this situation, nor rightly measured its horrors or its possibilities. Filled with our own schemes for making a living, or making money, or enjoying ourselves, we are prone to forget that 30,000,000 men are under arms, fighting as men never fought before, because never before were the issues at stake for the whole world so great and never before were the means for killing so awful.

In times past we have thought of armies in terms of tens of thousands or hundreds of thousands; now we have to think of them in terms of millions. Battle-fields now stretch over thousands of miles. All the horrors of all the wars of the last nineteen centuries combined sink into insignificance in comparison with the indescribable horrors of the present war.

We will be recreant to our country, to ourselves and to civilization if we do not adequately study this situation and see its possibilities of evil for us.

We are making enemies of all of the nations engaged in war, as the neutral generally does. But more than that, we are antagonizing those countries by boastfully announcing that we propose to capture the world's trade and take from these warring nations while they are engaged in a life and death struggle, the very foreign business upon which they have lived. It looks to them as though we were stabbing them in the back while they are fighting for existence, and while the Allies at least believe, and I think rightly so, that they are fighting our battle just as much as their own. Their failure would mean the failure of democracy and the world-wide rise of autocracy. Their failure would mean that all that this country has stood for in its fight for civil and religious liberty in the broadest sense and for human welfare as founded on democracy, would pass away.

We know full well that Germany and Austria and the "unspeakable Turk" hate us. We know full well that the vaulting ambition of Prussianism makes that country desire world domination for Kaiserism and not for democracy, and we know that this country has been literally full of German spies, seeking in every way possible to hamper and restrict this nation, to the advantage of Germany. Indeed, looked at from one point of view, we are practically having a civil war right now, for the laws of this country are violated, its officials from the president down are bitterly assailed and financial institutions which subscribed to the Allies' loan are being blacklisted or efforts made to bulldoze them by people in this country who esteem Germany more highly than they do this land to which they have sworn allegiance and while they forewarned allegiance to their native land.

Under such conditions and considering their effect upon us, we are indeed short-sighted if we do not recognize that the supreme duty of the hour to ourselves and to civilization is to put this country as quickly as possible in shape to safeguard its interests against attack from any source.

Our vast wealth, for we have about one-quarter of the world's accumulated wealth, tempts the cupidity of other nations. They see in this country a chance, if they are so disposed, to make us pay, in the shape of an indemnity, the entire cost of Europe's war and it would be altogether feasible for them to do this at a very small cost to themselves.

Unprepared as we are, either on land or water, to protect ourselves from invasion, we are like a fat goose wabbling around in its very fatness, surrounded by starving wolves.

Or change the simile, we have piled up a vast heap of gold, enough to meet the needs of the suffering countries of Europe, and we are protecting it with a stuffed club only, while around us are starving people, hating our very wealth and our prosperity, and armed with modern guns, and we foolishly think we are safe.

The man who leaves his wife and children in an unguarded, unlocked and unbolted house in a region infested with robbers and murderers and ravishers would not be more culpable than are the people of this country who are willing to leave the women and children and the helpless men and all our national wealth and national life unguarded and unprotected, in this hour, when the world is engaged in a war which has been the most vicious, as seen in the destruction of Belgium and Serbia and Armenia, that mankind has ever known.

Opposition to preparedness on the part of this country has just about as much foundation for its existence as opposition to life insurance had many years ago when insurance was new. "National preparedness" is simply "National insuredness." In the early days of insurance many good and pious people vigorously assailed insurance on the ground that it would lead to murder and that it taught people not to have faith in the Almighty's protecting care.

Men of sense no longer use such arguments against insurance. But those who in the early days took this position have just as much ground for their views as have the peace advocates of the present who are assailing the effort to secure national insuredness by "National preparedness."

If we insure our lives individually and rejoice in this beneficent privilege of protecting our loved ones in the case of death, why should we hesitate at national insurance to protect all the people and the nation's life against dangers that might at any moment become realities. The helplessness of this country, as it now stands, is appalling.

Without iron and steel no fight whatever could be made against an invader, and yet about 95 per cent of the steel produced in the United States is made out of ores that come from the Lake Superior region along the Canadian border, and nearly all of these ores pass through two short canals, one on the American side and one on the Canadian side, which could be instantaneously destroyed with a few sticks of dynamite.

An enemy could easily capture the Lake Superior district by invasion through Canada, or merely by destroying the canals through which these ores pass, cause an instantaneous collapse of about 90 per cent of our iron and 95 per cent of our steel business.

It is to be hoped that Heaven may save us from war with England, and that on our northern border, Canada may ever be our friend, but no man can say what will happen.

Moreover, if Germany should be victorious, it is altogether possible that one of the indemnities it would demand would be the cession of Canada, or else it would undertake to capture Canada—an easy task if England had been defeated. Immediately through Canada, Germany could capture the Lake Superior district and then set her own terms as to whether we should pay an indemnity great enough to repay her for the cost of the whole war, or whether for the rest of the time we should be a German colony, since without iron and steel we would be in no position to wage war.

Until the vast iron interests of the South and Southwest and the far West are adequately developed, and this will take years, our condition from the steel point of view is helplessness itself.

It is incumbent upon the nation itself as well as upon our iron and steel men to begin on a very large scale the fullest development of the great iron resources of the South and

Southwest to save us from our present amazing dependence upon the iron ores which come from the region bordering upon Canada.

Our entire munition business and practically all of our naval ship building is confined to the narrow strip of country along the Atlantic coast from Boston to Norfolk, Va. If that region were captured, and this is altogether possible under present conditions, the rest of the country, though it would probably have 90 to 95 per cent of the area of the whole land, would be almost as helpless as if our iron ores of the Lake Superior district had been captured. We might have 90,000,000 people outside of that narrow strip, but if they had no guns nor ammunition nor plants in which to make them, we could not for years to come produce a supply sufficient to justify an effort to protect ourselves against a well equipped invading army.

All of the nitrates which we use in making explosives or for fertilization come from Chile, 3,000 miles away. That supply could be instantaneously cut off by an enemy's navy and then we would be without explosives or the means for making them until we had developed hydro-electric powers sufficient to extract nitrogen from the air and thus supply nitrates. To accomplish this would take the work of several years, even though unlimited millions of dollars might be at the command of the government or of private concerns operating such an enterprise.

These facts, and they are facts which cannot possibly be controverted, should be given the most careful consideration by the whole country.

If we want to insure our national life for our own good and the welfare of civilization, we must recognize that the cost of doing so is simply a premium the same as individuals pay for individual life and fire insurance. To say that the country is not able to bear the cost of such insurance is absurd. To say that such insurance is not needed is on a par with the view that a man must not insure his life because he may live many years and could, therefore, save the premiums that he would pay, or that he must not insure his house or his business against fire, because the danger of fire is not sufficiently great to justify the cost. These arguments against life or fire insurance are just as substantial as are the arguments put forth today against "National preparedness" in order to make certain of "National insuredness."

N. Y. YACHT CLUB BOATS ANCHOR HERE

The houseboat Derendia arrived Wednesday evening from New York with her owner, Mr. Savage, of New York, aboard. She is a large, comfortably equipped boat of light enough draft to skim over Florida's shoals and sand-bars. After a brief visit here Mr. Savage will cruise southward, touching at Palm Beach and Miami. The Derendia is anchored below the south bridge in the deep-water channel.

The houseboat Awa also arrived in Daytona Wednesday night. She is lying near the Derendia, ready to drop down the Halifax river when her owner, A. D. Cochran, and his party have thoroughly enjoyed the scenery of "The Prettiest Winter Resort in the World."

Mr. Cochran tells of a pleasant trip all the way from New York. He came by way of the canals from Jacksonville, stopping for a brief period at St. Augustine. It is his intention to cruise for some little time, this winter, in Biscayne bay, among the picturesque keys.

Tribute to the Ancient Romans.
The Avezano region was not unknown to the Romans and the old Roman roads across the mountains may still be traced in places. A man beside the way of whom the distance was asked, replied: "By the Roman road it is so far."—Thomas Nelson Page in Scribner's Magazine.

Thrust at Scotch Frugality.
"No wonder the Scotch get rich," said a man, laying down a magazine about the multimillionaires of Scottish blood. "No wonder." He puffed his Havana thoughtfully. "An Irishman and a Scotchman went into a bar one day," he said. "But the Irishman had no money." He blew a fragrant cloud towards the ceiling. "So they came out," he said, "without a drink."—London Opinion.

H. S. VS. STETSON AT ARCADE FRIDAY

The Daytona high school basketball team will play their first game since returning to school Monday, when they will meet the fast Stetson academy team at the Arcade Friday night.

The first game between these two teams was played at Cumming's gymnasium in DeLand several weeks ago, and resulted in a defeat for D. H. S.
This assures a good tight game on the home court. The D. H. S. line-up for the game will probably be as follows: Branch, center; R. Green, right forward; W. Sullivan, left forward; R. Doty, right guard; O. Sullivan, left guard.

The home team is somewhat confident of winning the coming game as their general playing form has improved greatly since the game at De-Land several weeks ago.

The game will be called at 8:00 o'clock Friday night of this week.

ACTION ON PERSIA CASE WILL BE TAKEN SOON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—"Action which will satisfy all patriotic Americans will be taken in the Persia case," Wilson assured Senators Overman and Simmons today. He also announced that as soon as the facts could be gathered together, drastic action would be taken, if a submarine is found to have been responsible. The president later conferred with Senator Stone, who will endeavor to prevent further debate in the senate on the international situation.

LEADERS TO PRESS THE CONSCRIPTION MEASURE

LONDON, Jan. 6. — Despite the desperate opposition to even limited conscription, government leaders today declared that the bill would be pressed and predicted that the measure would be on the statute books by February 1.

However, the opposition of the Irish Nationalists and of the labor party make the success of the government scheme rather doubtful and it is predicted in many quarters that a general election will be forced within a fortnight. Should such a thing occur, the present administration would be swept out of power by the conservative power.

MILITIA NOT TO PLAY A PROMINENT PART

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Secretary Garrison today told the military committee that the state governments and not the national government should pay a militia secretary. He discredited the plan to have the militia play a prominent part in preparedness, giving it as his opinion that the states have frequently heretofore disbanded militia to keep the federal authorities from ordering it into service.

The Swiss method of universal training seems impractical in the United States, because the government does not control the schools. Secretary Garrison referred favorably to the president's plan of a small standing army and a large reserve.

ENORMOUS DEMAND FOR AMERICAN WIRE

PITTSBURG, Jan. 6.—Prominent manufacturers here are enthusiastic over business prospects this year as far as the manufacture of wire is concerned. The demand for wire is the greatest in the history of the country.
It is stated. To a great extent that is due to the war, where considerable wire is being utilized. In addition to that the foreign countries which formerly competed with the United States are out of the market because they either are producing none at all,
or else their production is curtailed.
It is stated that 50 per cent of the wire made in the United States today is sent abroad.
